Dear Mr Narasinga Rao,

Of the elephants captured recently at the Kheddas, 11 young calves have been disposed of locally for Rs 8,200, 3 have been reserved for the Palace, 12 for Departmental use and one for presentation to the Madras Forest Department. I have arranged to sell the remaining 56 animals at Calicut on the 17th April by public auction.

Mr Muthia will go in charge of the animals and he will be accompanied by Field Inspector Ossumeah, Ranger Chendrasekharaiya and Forester Venkatanarnappa. If the Dewan approves, I propose going to Calicut to be
